Defendants.)

This matter is before the court with the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge Bruce H. Hendricks, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Rule 73.02 DSC.¹ Cheryl A. Davidson (“Davidson”), proceeding pro se, seeks damages for alleged civil rights violations in an action filed pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. In her Report and Recommendation, Magistrate Judge Hendricks recommends granting James Taylor, John O’Donald, and Darrell Betsill’s (collectively “defendants”) motions for summary judgment.

Davidson filed objections to the Report and Recommendation. Objections to the Report and Recommendation must be specific. Failure to file specific objections constitutes a waiver of a party’s right to further judicial review, including appellate review, if the recommendation is accepted by the district judge. See United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d

91, 94 & n.4 (4th Cir. 1984). In the absence of specific objections to the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

Upon review, the court finds that Davidson's objections are non-specific, unrelated to the dispositive portions of the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation, and merely restate her claims. Therefore, after a thorough review of the Magistrate Judge's Report and the record in this case, the court adopts the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation.

Therefore, it is

ORDERED that defendants' motions for summary judgment are granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
